

My local cable company is incompetent to provide these services. Their billing system is a mess, they aren't able to answer simple questions using the local help number, and there is no national help or assistance number or electronic contact. Bresnan Communications is a joke and should not be allowed to provide either high speed internet, broadband, or even cable for that matter.